

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY
CENTRAL DIVISION AT LEXINGTON

SKAT,
v.
TEW ENTERPRISES, LLC RETIREMENT
PLAN & ANDREA TEW, Defendants.

Civil Action No.

COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff SKAT, which is the Customs and Tax Administration of the Kingdom of Denmark, by its attorneys, alleges against Defendants Tew Enterprises, LLC Retirement Plan (“Tew Enterprises”) and Andrea Tew (“Tew”) as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff SKAT is the agency of the government of Denmark charged with the assessment and collection of Danish taxes.
2. This case stems from a fraudulent tax refund scheme to deceive SKAT into paying out over 12.7 billion Danish Kroner (“DKK”), the equivalent of approximately $2.1 billion (US), of allegedly withheld dividend tax.
3. The essence of the fraudulent scheme is that each of over 300 entities pretended to own shares in Danish companies listed on the OMX Copenhagen 20 Index, the 20 most-traded stocks in Denmark. The Danish companies are required to withhold 27% tax on dividends they pay to shareholders. Under certain double taxation treaties between Denmark and other countries, including the United States, this tax is reimbursable to non-Danish shareholders.

4. The entities, acting through their agents and representatives, applied to SKAT claiming repayments of tax withheld on dividends that they purported to have earned on shares of Danish companies. These applications were fraudulent because the claimants did not own the shares that they claimed to own, they did not earn the dividends they claimed to have earned, and they were not entitled to the tax refunds they claimed.

5. The claimants effectuated the scheme by appointing agents to apply to SKAT for refunds in respect of shares in Danish companies that they did not own. The agents submitted the fraudulent applications at the direction of, and on behalf of, the claimants, with false documentation representing that the claimants owned substantial shares in Danish companies, had earned substantial dividends for which tax had been withheld, and other documentation representing that the claimants were entitled to a tax refund. The agents obtained over $2.1 billion in refunds from SKAT, and distributed the proceeds of the scheme to the claimants and other participants in the fraud. During the period of 2012 to 2015, SKAT received fraudulent requests for tax refunds from several agents on behalf of 277 pension plans in the United States, including Defendant Tew Enterprises, as well as entities in the United Kingdom, Canada, Malaysia, and Luxembourg.

6. On June 15, 2015, SKAT received information indicating that certain claimants may have submitted fraudulent tax refund claims based on the double taxation treaty between Denmark and Malaysia. Based on this information, SKAT undertook an investigation and subsequently discovered that the claimants had submitted requests for tax refunds by misrepresenting that they owned shares in Danish companies, that they had earned substantial dividend income on their shares, and that they were entitled to refunds of tax withheld in respect of those dividends. Through its investigation, SKAT discovered that these representations were false: the claimants did not own the shares and they were not entitled to a refund of withholding tax.

7. As a result of these false claims, the claimants and their agents received cash payments of what were supposed to be “refunds” of tax to which they were not entitled. During the course of its investigation, SKAT also learned that the scheme involved entities and individuals not just in Malaysia, but also in the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, and Luxembourg.

8. On or about August 24, 2015, SKAT stopped paying all claims for refunds of dividend withholding tax while it investigated the fraudulent scheme. At the same time, SKAT reported the alleged fraud to the Danish Public Prosecutor for Serious Economic and International Crime (“SØIK”). The fraudulent scheme is currently under investigation by law enforcement authorities in Denmark, the United Kingdom, Germany, and other jurisdictions. At least three individuals have been criminally charged by SØIK.

9. The claimants obtained substantial assistance in the fraudulent scheme from several other entities and individuals, including:

a. The Authorized Representatives of the claimants, such as Defendant Tew, who, among other things, executed at the direction of, and on behalf of, the claimants documents authorizing the Payment Agents to submit the claimants’ tax refund claims and to receive from SKAT payments in respect of those claims;

b. The non-party Payment Agents, which are companies that submitted fraudulent tax refund claims to SKAT at the direction of, and on behalf of, the claimants; and

c. The non-party Broker-Custodians, which are financial institutions that provided statements falsely representing that the claimants owned shares in Danish companies and had earned dividends on those shares.

10. The Defendants did know or should have known that these arrangements would cause SKAT to make payments to which the Defendants were not entitled.

11. SKAT made all the payments to the claimants' Payment Agents, which, on information and belief, distributed the proceeds to other participants in the fraud, including the claimants and the Authorized Representatives.

12. As a result of the overall fraudulent scheme, SKAT paid baseless withholding tax refund claims of approximately $2.1 billion (US).

13. As a result of the fraudulent claims by the Defendants in this action, SKAT paid baseless withholding tax refund claims and was damaged in the amount of at least $2,389,000 (US)<sup>1</sup>, plus interest.

II. JURISDICTION & VENUE

14. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(4), this Court has jurisdiction over all claims because the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs, and is between an agency or instrumentality of a foreign state and citizens of a state or of different states.

15. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in the Central Division of this District. In the alternative, venue is proper because at least one of the Defendants is subject to the jurisdiction of this Court.

1. This amount is the result of a conversion from DKK to U.S. Dollars performed on June 1, 2018, utilizing a conversion rate of 1 U.S. Dollar to 6.3861 DKK.

III. PARTIES

16. Plaintiff SKAT is the Danish national agency charged with assessing and collecting taxes. SKAT is located at Østbanegade 123, 2200 København Ø, Denmark. During the period material to the events described in this Complaint, SKAT used a mailing address of Skattecenter Høje-Taastrup, Postboks 60, DK-2630 Taastrup, Denmark.

17. Defendant Tew Enterprises is a pension plan, which, in its requests to SKAT for tax refunds, listed its address as 910 Aiken Road, Versailles, Kentucky 40383, USA. On information and belief, each member of Defendant Tew Enterprises is a citizen of Kentucky. At all times material to the allegations in this Complaint, Defendant Tew Enterprises purported to be a trust forming part of a pension, profit sharing, or stock bonus plan qualified under section 401(a) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, exempt from taxation under section 501(a) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, and resident of the United States of America for purposes of U.S. taxation.

18. Defendant Tew is a citizen of Kentucky. At all times material to the allegations in this Complaint, Tew served as the Authorized Representative for Defendant Tew Enterprises.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. The Danish Withholding Tax System

19. Withholding tax is a common fiscal device by which taxes are deducted at the source by a payer of income, and are reported to the relevant tax authority. In this case, the relevant tax authority is SKAT.

20. Under the Danish Withholding Tax Act section 65, Danish companies are required to withhold 27% of the dividend distributed as to their shares.

21. Foreign shareholders may be entitled to a refund if the withheld tax exceeds the amount of tax owed according to a double taxation treaty between Denmark and the shareholder's country of residence.

22. A double taxation treaty between Denmark and the United States<sup>2</sup> allows for refund of tax withheld on dividends paid by Danish companies to U.S. pension plans, which are exempt from taxation.

23. SKAT paid claims for refunds of dividend withholding tax made by claimants who represented that they had shareholdings in Danish companies and that they had received dividends on those shareholdings net of the tax. The claimants submitted refund claims seeking the full 27% withholding tax that had allegedly been withheld from distributions on shares that the claimants purported to own.

24. It was SKAT's normal practice to accept claims from designated payment agents and to transmit refunds to claimants through their designated payment agents.

B. The Fraudulent Scheme

25. As a result of its investigation, SKAT has now determined that, during the period 2012 through 2015, it received fraudulent dividend withholding tax refund claims as part of a scheme involving (i) a pension plan or other claimant, (ii) an Authorized Representative, (iii) a Payment Agent, and (iv) a Broker-Custodian. The respective roles of each of these participants are described in further detail in paragraphs 32 through 49 below.

2. Convention and Protocol between the United States and Denmark for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and the Prevention of Fiscal Evasion with Respect to Taxes on Income, U.S.-Den., art. 10, ¶ 2(c), May 6, 1948, S. Treaty Doc. No. 106-12 (effective date Jan. 1, 2001).

1. The Fraudulent Refund Claims Process

26. The claimants submitted fraudulent claims to SKAT through Payment Agents, including non-party Global Equities GmbH (“Global Equities”), each of which submitted claims by mail or by email transmissions.

27. The claimants received payments with respect to their refund claims from their designated Payment Agents, to which SKAT transmitted payment by bank transfer.

28. Each of the claimants provided the following documentation to SKAT through their designated agents:

a. a short cover letter, printed on a Payment Agent’s letterhead and addressed to SKAT in Taastrup, Denmark;

b. a SKAT “Claim to Relief from Danish Dividend Tax” form (the “Claim Form”), which set out:

i. the identity of the claimant representing that it owned the relevant shares and had received dividends net of withholding tax;

ii. the amount of the tax refund claim;

iii. a certification that the claimant was covered by the relevant double taxation treaty between Denmark and the country in which the claimant was resident; and

iv. the bank account to which SKAT should pay the claim;

c. a “credit advice” note purporting to describe the shareholding (or security) and the amount of dividend tax withheld;

d. a signed Power of Attorney, by which the claimant’s Authorized Representative appointed a Payment Agent to act on behalf of the stated claimant; and

e. in respect of United States-based pension plans, a statement from the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”), certifying that each pension plan was (I) a trust forming part of a pension, profit sharing, or stock bonus plan qualified under section 401(a) of the United States Internal Revenue Code (the “Code”), (II) exempt from U.S. taxation under section 501(a) of the Code, and (III) resident in the United States for purposes of United States taxation.

29. The fraudulent claims alleged shareholdings in some of the largest Danish listed companies belonging to the OMX Copenhagen 20 Index in Denmark.

30. It was SKAT’s practice to pay claims that included the required supporting documentation.

31. SKAT made payments by bank transfer to the Payment Agents for the benefit of the claimants.

2. The Role of the Claimants

32. Out of the over 300 claimants that SKAT has, to date, determined were participants in the fraudulent scheme, 277 were in the United States.

33. Each of the claimants, including Defendant Tew Enterprises, made withholding tax refund claims through their Payment Agents, as described in paragraph 28, above.

34. As part of the fraudulent claims, each of the Authorized Representatives confirmed to SKAT that they were agents of the claimants and were authorized to act on behalf of the claimants with respect to the dividend withholding tax refund claims. Defendant Tew Enterprises represented that Defendant Tew was its Authorized Representative and agent who had authority to act on its behalf with respect to Defendant Tew Enterprises’ claims.

35. As part of their fraudulent claims, each of the claimants designated one of the Payment Agents as its agent to act on behalf of that claimant with respect to the claim.

Defendant Tew Enterprises represented that non-party Global Equities was its agent and had authority to act on its behalf with respect to its claims.

36. Each of the claimants represented to SKAT that they held shares in, and received dividends net of withholding tax from, large Danish listed companies. Defendant Tew Enterprises made twenty-one (21) separate withholding tax refund claims, and represented that it was entitled to refunds totaling at least $2,389,000 (US). These refund claims were submitted to SKAT on the following dates: September 11, 2012; December 21, 2012; March 25, 2013; April 2, 2013; April 9, 2013; April 16, 2013; April 29, 2013; April 30, 2013; October 2, 2013; January 13, 2014; January 17, 2014; March 31, 2014; April 10, 2014; and April 29, 2014.

37. In fact, Defendant Tew Enterprises did not hold the shares it represented to SKAT that it owned, and had no dividend tax withheld.

38. Based on the false refund claims listed in paragraph 36, SKAT made payments to Defendant Tew Enterprises on the following dates: September 24, 2012; February 12, 2013; April 15, 2013; April 24, 2013; May 13, 2013; October 15, 2013; February 3, 2014; April 24, 2014; and May 28, 2014.

3. The Role of the Claimants' Authorized Representatives

39. Each Authorized Representative executed at the direction of, and on behalf of, the claimant for which he or she was the Authorized Representative a form entitled "Power of Attorney." By the Power of Attorney, the claimant, acting through its respective Authorized Representative, granted the Payment Agent authority to act on behalf of the claimant.

40. Defendant Tew executed at the direction of, and on behalf of, Defendant Tew Enterprises a "Power of Attorney" dated August 1, 2012, that granted to Payment Agent Global Equities authority to be the "true and lawful attorney [] for [Tew Enterprises] and in [Tew Enterprises'] name to do and perform any act or thing which may be required of it with regard to . . . matters relating to the processing of withholding tax claims.” Defendant Tew described herself as the “Trustee” of Defendant Tew Enterprises.

41. Defendant Tew and non-parties Bernard Tew, Stephanie Tew, Vincent Tew, and Bluegrass Investment Management, LLC, whose managing member is Bernard Tew, signed Power of Attorney documents as the Authorized Representative for at least 15 of the 277 U.S. entities that pretended to own shares in Danish companies listed on the OMX Copenhagen 20 Index and that fraudulently requested tax refunds from SKAT, including Defendant Tew Enterprises. On information and belief, Bernard Tew is Defendant Tew’s husband, and Stephanie and Vincent Tew are their children. In addition to Defendant Tew signing the “Power of Attorney” document for Defendant Tew Enterprises on or about August 1, 2012, the Tews signed such Power of Attorney documents on behalf of at least the 14 other separate claimants for which one of them was the Authorized Representative on the same date.

42. Each of the 15 claimants for which Defendant Tew or another member of the Tew family signed as Authorized Representative, including Defendant Tew Enterprises, in their requests to SKAT for tax refunds, listed an address of 910 Aiken Road, Versailles, Kentucky 40383, USA for requests submitted on or before December 14, 2014, and 2050 Regency Road, Suite C, Lexington, Kentucky 40503, USA for requests submitted after that date.

4. The Role of the Payment Agents

43. The Payment Agents submitted the fraudulent withholding tax refund claims at the direction of the claimants and Authorized Representatives and on behalf of the claimants.

44. By means of the Power of Attorney described in paragraphs 39-40 above, each claimant authorized its respective Payment Agent to act on behalf of and subject to control of the claimant with respect to submitting the withholding tax refund claims.

45. With each claim, the Payment Agents submitted substantially similar cover letters attaching the documentation described in paragraph 28 above.

46. In connection with each Claim Form, the Payment Agent:

- a. provided its email address as the contact address for the claimant on whose behalf it was acting;
- b. signed and stamped the form, and stated it was applying on behalf of the claimant;
- c. enclosed the Power of Attorney executed by the claimant's Authorized Representative; and
- d. requested that SKAT pay the claim to its bank account.

47. As per the directions included in the submission to SKAT, the Payment Agents received payment of the refunds from SKAT on behalf of the claimants. On information and belief, the Payment Agents subsequently distributed the proceeds to the claimants and other participants in the fraud, including the Authorized Representatives, and the Payment Agents themselves.

5. The Role of the Broker-Custodians

48. Each entity claiming a withholding tax refund submitted to SKAT a "credit advice," "income advice," "tax voucher" or similar document from a Broker-Custodian that purported to show the claimant's ownership of shares in Danish companies listed on the OMX Copenhagen 20 Index.

49. By way of example, with respect to Defendant Tew Enterprises, one example of a "tax voucher":

- a. is made out by ED & F Man Capital Markets Limited;

b. purports to certify Defendant Tew Enterprises' ownership of 375,000 shares in TDC A/S (a genuine company), and whose shares were (and are) publicly traded on the OMX Copenhagen 20 Index in Denmark; and

c. states an International Securities Identification Number ("ISIN") for TDC A/S shares as "DK0060228559". An ISIN is a twelve-character alpha-numeric code that uniquely identifies securities for trading and settlement purposes.

50. Defendant Tew Enterprises never owned the shares described above, never received any dividend from Danish companies in which it was a purported shareholder, and was not entitled to claim a refund of dividend withholding tax.

51. In the course of its investigation, in or around August 2015, SKAT concluded that many of the withholding tax refund claims that had been made in the preceding years, including claims by Defendant Tew Enterprises, were fraudulent and SKAT suspended further payments.

CAUSES OF ACTION

COUNT I

(Fraud – Against Both Defendants)

52. SKAT repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 51 above as if fully set forth herein.

53. Defendants intentionally, knowingly and/or recklessly made or caused to be made the material, false and fraudulent statements described in paragraphs 28-29, 36 and 48 through 50 to support claims for withholding tax refund payments.

54. Defendants intentionally, knowingly, and/or recklessly made or caused to be made these false and fraudulent statements to induce SKAT to pay the claims.

55. In reasonable reliance on the false and fraudulent misrepresentations, SKAT paid baseless withholding tax refund claims of at least $2,389,000 (US) and thereby suffered damages of that amount, plus interest.

56. Defendants' extensive fraudulent conduct was undertaken with oppression, fraud, malice and / or gross negligence, entitling SKAT to punitive damages.

COUNT II

(Aiding and Abetting Fraud – Against Both Defendants)

57. SKAT repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 56 above as if fully set forth herein.

58. As alleged above, a massive fraud was perpetrated on SKAT by the claimants, the Authorized Representatives, the Payment Agents, and/or other non-parties.

59. As alleged in paragraphs 25 through 50 above, the Defendants, with knowledge of this wrongful conduct, participated in the massive fraud on SKAT.

60. The Defendants acted with knowledge, willful blindness, and/or recklessness in submitting claims for refunds of dividend withholding tax to SKAT with knowledge that they were not entitled to receive any refunds.

61. The Defendants intentionally furthered the fraud and substantially assisted or encouraged the fraud through their conduct described in paragraphs 25 through 50 above.

62. As a direct and natural cause of the Defendants' aiding and abetting of the fraudulent scheme, SKAT has suffered substantial damages.

63. Defendants' extensive fraudulent conduct was undertaken with oppression, fraud, malice and / or gross negligence, entitling SKAT to punitive damages.

COUNT III

(Unjust Enrichment – Against Both Defendants)

64. SKAT repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 63 above as if fully set forth herein.

65. This is a claim by SKAT for recovery of monies by which the Defendants were unjustly enriched.

66. SKAT conferred a benefit on Defendants at SKAT's expense, in the form of the dividend withholding tax refund payments paid to the Defendants.

67. By obtaining proceeds from withholding tax refund claims, directly or indirectly, to which they were not entitled, the Defendants received a benefit the retention of which without repayment would be inequitable.

68. SKAT suffered a loss because of the Defendants' unjust enrichment.

69. The Defendants are liable to account and pay to SKAT the amount of dividend withholding tax refund payments they received from SKAT to which they were not entitled, plus interest.

COUNT IV

(Money Had & Received – Against Both Defendants)

70. SKAT repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 69 above as if fully set forth herein.

71. As a result of their fraudulent scheme, Defendants received proceeds from withholding tax refunds to which they were not entitled and which rightfully belong to another.

72. It is against equity and good conscience to permit Defendants to keep these monies, and they should account for and pay to SKAT the amount of withholding tax refund payments they received to which they were not entitled, plus interest.

COUNT V

(Negligent Misrepresentation – Against Both Defendants)

73. SKAT repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 72 above as if fully set forth herein.

74. Defendants had a duty, as a result of their submission of claims for withholding tax refund payments, a transaction in which they had a pecuniary interest, to provide truthful, accurate, and complete information to SKAT in all material respects concerning their applications for such payments.

75. Defendants made material misstatements described in paragraphs 28-29, 36 and 48 through 50 above in connection with every withholding tax refund claim submitted on behalf of Defendant Tew Enterprises to SKAT. Defendants knew, or should have known, that these statements were inaccurate, and made them without reasonable care as to their accuracy.

76. Defendants' material misstatements were intended to induce SKAT to rely upon them, and defendants expected SKAT to rely upon them.

77. SKAT reasonably and justifiably relied on the misstatements while reviewing defendants' claims, and as a direct and proximate result incurred damages of at least $2,389,000 (US), plus interest.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff SKAT requests that this Court enter judgment in its favor against Defendants as follows:

1. For Counts I, II and V, for fraud, aiding and abetting fraud, and negligent misrepresentation, the damages sustained by SKAT as a result of the Defendants' wrongful acts, plus pre-judgment interest, fees, costs and expenses.

2. For Counts III and IV, for unjust enrichment, and money had and received, the damages sustained or the amounts by which the Defendants were unjustly enriched, or by which the Defendants received money to which they were not entitled, plus pre-judgment interest, fees, costs and expenses.
3. For Counts I and II, punitive damages.
4. The costs of this action.
5. All other and further relief that is just and proper.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff SKAT demands a jury trial on all issues so triable.

Respectfully submitted,
